

THE speech of Mr. Jefferson Davis is still the theme for buncombe articles North and South. As a general thing, the Southern democratic journals appear to think it to be their duty to defend him, though there are many exceptions. Certainly they should be willing to admit that Davis' speeches have been invariably productive of evil since the war. He should imitate the example of his noble chieftain, Robert E. Lee, and remain silent. But this is impossible, to a man of his temperament. His life is made up of hotly contested political warfare, until it has become second nature to him. The serious charges made by Henry S. Foote, of Mississippi, will cause much excitement all over the land, but as we were not in Richmond (fortunately) during the war, we can form no opinion of their truth or falsity. It does not seem possible to us that Jeff. Davis—for whom we have no admiration—could have embezzled the funds of the Confederacy, though Foote says he can prove his charges.

The New York Herald refers to this latter controversy in this wise: "Jeff Davis has had during his eventful career many thorns in his side, but none have stuck closer than that of Henry S. Foote. There has been throughout nearly the whole public life of Davis and Foote an irrepressible conflict between the two men. As rivals in Mississippi, years before the war, during the war, when the former was President of the Confederate States and the latter a member of the Confederate Congress, and all along Foote has followed up his ancient rival. He can give trenchant blows, too, something after the Bea Butler style; when fully aroused. His last attack on Davis is as stunning as it is well merited. Davis is a firebrand of mischief, and continues to do more harm to the South by his ridiculous and imprudent speeches than a host of other men, and he ought to be exposed by courageous Southerners like Foote."

REV. J. S. LONG was to be at Rocky Point to-day to organize Granges in that portion of the county, and if he is there, will undoubtedly organize one or two. This is good. Let us have them in great numbers, so that our farmers may devise means for a successful prosecution of their business. Let them have their meetings, and bring here the latest machinery and modern appliances, so that our products may be made at a less expense. Let the Grangers come to the Fair in columns, so that it will be a success, and they reap the benefit therefrom.

A resolution was adopted at the late agricultural meeting at Point Caswell to call a meeting of the Society at that point at some time when Mr. Long could be present, so that one or more Granges could be organized in that vicinity. We hope the arrangements may be made, so that the objects of the Order may be carried out. Bring on your Granges, and work for better times.—That is what we want.

A charming daughter of Hepworth Dixon has just died at nineteen. She was her father's secretary, brilliant and accomplished. A year ago, happening to hear him say that he should like to have some Spanish works translated into English, immediately applied herself to learn Spanish, and six months afterwards made the translation.

It is seriously proposed to pipe petroleum from the oil region to the seaboard. The object is to avoid the danger and expense of rail importation, and it is proposed to lay two lines of pipe—one of six inches for refined, and of eight inches for crude oil—from the most convenient place in the oil regions to New York and Philadelphia, using a large engine at each end—one for force and the other for suction.

The Shah was completely taken aback on learning that the high honor of the Garter was to cost him £200, and he left England without having settled the little account. The Emperor of the French, though one of the most munificent of sovereigns, resented a similar demand, and a correspondence in relation to this matter was extended over a period of two years.

It is strange what trifles will annoy some people. The case of Arthur Austin, aged eighteen, of Fall Grove, Tenn., reported by the Nashville papers, is an illustration. He got tired of seeing his drunken father snap caps at him with a loaded revolver, and, languidly picking up a shot gun, he put an end simultaneously to the annoyance and to the old man.

A New Orleans monkey rescued an infant from impending death under the wheels of a horse car the other day.

EDITORIAL.

Jefferson Davis has presidency of the Carolina Insurance Company.

The latest advices from the steamer Belle Vernon place number of lives lost at four—near and fireman, from Cincinnati—two deck passengers, from Shawtown, Illinois.

The health officer has issued an order from and after Sunday, August 31st, all vessels from the ports of New Orleans or Brashear will be subjected to detention at quarantine.

The Indians made a raid on Fair View, San Pete county, Utah, and ran off with a number of cattle. They were pursued, but proved too strongly armed and located to attack them. Aid has been asked from General Morrow. The Indians are probably from the Uintahs' reservation.

The report from Waco, Texas, of an attack by Indians on Fort Sill and the massacre of women and children and part of the 4th cavalry is undoubtedly an error. No such report has been received at Sheridan's headquarters, which would certainly have been the case if one had been made. Furthermore, the 4th cavalry is at Fort Clark on the Rio Grande, not within five hundred miles of Fort Sill.

False and extravagant reports regarding the health of New Orleans having been circulated elsewhere, Dr. C. S. White, president of the Board of Health, publishes a card, in which he says: "At this date, August 23, only one case of yellow fever is under treatment in private practice, and another case in the wards of the Charity Hospital. These are the only cases known to the Board of Health."

Contributions in aid of the families rendered homeless by the recent fire at Belfast, Me., are being constantly received. Bangor and Portland have already sent $1,000 each. The Mayor is advised that six car loads of corn are on the way from Omaha. Four thousand dollars was at once raised by the citizens for immediate necessities, and the committee are still at work.

The Wisconsin State Republican Convention was held at Madison on Wednesday last. Hon. C. C. Washburn was nominated for Governor, by acclamation; R. H. Baker was chosen for Lieutenant Governor; E. W. Young for Secretary of State, and O. C. Johnson for Treasurer.

The following resolutions were adopted: PREAMBLE, In view of the fact that the Republican party has to meet the vital issues of the past twelve years so as to secure the support of a vast preponderance of the nation, it has fairly won for itself the title of being the true reform party of the country, and recognizing the importance of all the questions recently raised, and now for the first time attracting general public attention, relating to labor and capital, trade and commerce, production and supply, transportation and exchanges, corporate franchises and monopolies, and to all other subjects embraced in our political economy, we pledge ourselves as such to adopt and carry into execution and effect all judicious measures of progress and relief relating to these and all other kindred subjects, and as a party we can give assurance from our political ascendancy, both in the National and State governments, of a more speedy and effectual remedy of existing evils than would be possible through any existing opposing party, or any party yet to be formed.

Resolved, That the Republican party is responsible only for such measures as it indorses and approves, or for an honest and faithful administration of the Government, and cannot be expected to vouch for the individual honesty in all cases of those they promote to office.—Yet when such are found unfaithful or corrupt, they should be exposed, dismissed from the public service, and punished. We denounce all official frauds and corrupt legislation, whether in land grants and subsidies to railroads, in Credit Mobilier, or in the management of the revenue.

Resolved, That we disapprove and condemn the recent measure by which Congress allowed additional compensation to itself for past services, and demand that the provisions of the act by which Congressional salaries were increased shall be promptly and unconditionally repealed.

Resolved, That it is contrary to the theory of representative government that any legislative body should make laws exclusively for their own benefit; and we, therefore, favor an amendment to our National Constitution which shall forever prohibit any Congress from increasing its own compensation.

Resolved, That the subject of cheap and reasonable rates of transportation has become of pressing importance to the great body of people, both East and West, and to producers and consumers, and that it is necessary that some proper legislative measures should be speedily adopted to secure relief and protection against the greed and oppression of our grasping monopolies. We urgently recommend, what has been already urged in two annual Messages of the present Executive, the creation of a Board of Railroad Control, whose duty shall be to examine the whole subject of transportation and freights, and report facts in relation thereto, and prescribe and adjust such regulations as will be fair and equitable to both the people and the railroad companies.

ago and Alton railroad, which caused the recent terrible loss of life at Lemont, has been arrested and committed to jail in Chicago.

A fire broke out shortly after midnight in a wooden block on Court st., near Hancock, Gloucester, Mass., Thursday, which rapidly worked westerly, consuming four or five adjoining blocks. The flames then caught the roof of the Cape Ann Advertiser building, which is of brick, burning downward to the second story. The fire was got under control at four o'clock. The loss is estimated at from $80,000 to $100,000.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.--Last night an attempt was made to burglarize the dwelling of a lady living on Seventh, between Market and Dock streets, but before the thief could effect an entrance he was discovered and frightened off.

It is said that those living in the vicinity of the west end of Dock street have not been troubled with mosquitos at all this summer, owing to the excessive brassy blowing proceeding usually from the neighborhood of Jack Griffith's sail loft.

STABBING AFFRAY.--An unfortunate affray occurred near the "Brink Colony" a few days ago, between a white man, a colored man and a woman in which all three were injured. It seems that an altercation occurred between Samuel Rivenbark and Joe Powers, in which knives were drawn and that the woman, Eliza Race, interfered, probably to separate them. In the melee all three were cut. We have not learned the extent of their injuries.

A COLORED MAN, working on the wharf last evening, had the misfortune to fall into the river, and came near being drowned. He was rescued by his friends, but the sudden wetting and exertion gave him a severe chill; so, according upon the advice of his friends, he drank a quantity of whiskey. This experiment proved too much for him, and he was arrested for drunkenness and taken to the guard-house, where he remained until this morning, and, upon explanation of the above facts, was released, without being brought before the court.

WILMINGTON CITY DIRECTORY.-- Messrs. S. G. Hall and E. S. Warrock are making arrangements for publishing a full and complete Directory of the City. Instead of the "History of Wilmington from its commencement," it is the intention of the publishers to present a comprehensive and concise article on the commerce and business interests of the City; also, a description of the Churches, Schools, Public Buildings, Hotels, Railroads and Steamboat lines, &c. &c.

This Directory will be issued by the Fair in November, will be printed in this city, and no collections asked until the work is completed and delivered.

There has not been a time when a correct Directory of the City was more needed than at present, and we have no doubt but that our business men will promptly embrace the opportunity of liberally patronizing a work which will tend so much to their interest.

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Rainy.
— Gold is 115 1/4.
— Large areas of mud.
— Go to church to-morrow.
— There were 129 carts in market the past week.

— The river is very high. In fact, unnecessarily so.

— Will we have water works and pavements in this day and generation?

— Major R. P. Barry has just arrived from New York on the steamship Metropolis.

— Rice birds in market this morning, but not very fat. They sold at 25 cents per dozen.

— This is the last business day of the week, and the month, and of Summer.
The Post will appear again next Fall.

— Don't forget or neglect to read the advertisement of L. Solomon to-day.— He is the right man in the right place.

— Whistling is becoming monotonous. Hour by hour, day by day, we hear two boys near our office whistle the same tune over and over again. We have learned it, and don't want any more.

PINE FOREST CEMETERY.—Inter-found guilty and bound over in the sum of $50 for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court.

Wm. Jackson, charged with highway robbery, was committed to jail for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court.

Two men were fined $20 and cost for being drunk and fighting.

THE GREAT EASTERN.—We are pleased to announce that Mr. Andrew Haight, the head and front of the Great Eastern Circus and Menagerie, will arrive in Wilmington to-morrow morning, and will at once put things in readiness for the performances to be given here in a few weeks. This splendid combination has been much improved in its various departments, and we learn from Mr. Haight that the exhibitions promised will surpass in grandeur anything yet brought South in the question line. Several old favorites have been retained, and many new candidates for popular favor, have been engaged at considerable expense. In a few days the readers of the Post will have the full bill of fare set before them in a conspicuous advertisement.

An amusing thing occurred to-day in the office of the Register of Deeds. A colored man made application for a marriage license, and on being asked the color of the lady in question, promptly replied that he didn't know.
Black? No. White? No. Indian? No.
Mulatto? Damfino. "But the law requires that the color shall be stated, and the license can't be issued till I know it," replied the Register. "Well," said the anxious to be married man, "just you hold that book open a few minutes and I'll let you answer your own question, or let the lady answer it for you;" and away he bolted and soon returned leading his blushing bride by the hand, who happened to be known to the official. The license was at once issued, and they sailed off, happy in the prospect of soon being made bone of one bone and flesh of one flesh. Sic transit.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Last night about nine o'clock, William Jackson, who will be remembered as the "Court House ghost," choked and robbed Aunt Jane Shidbury while on her way home.
Aunt Jane says: "I was going home last night, when Jackson asked me if I would have company, and we walked along, one word bringing on another, until this man, who told me his name was Jim Johnson, said he knew my boy in Virginia. When we got near home, he asked me if I had any money, when I asked him what's that to him, and he gazed me by the throat and tore my dress open in front, and took my pocket book, which had $1 85 in it, and my large snuff box, and then run off. He choked me clean speechless, and I could not talk for an hour. I came down to the guard-house this morning, and asked a policeman what to do; he told me to go and hunt for him, and so I run up with him after a little while. I didn't know his name, but I knowed his favor.
The policeman took my pocket book from him this morning." Jackson stoutly denies ever having seen the woman, and states that the pocket book was the property of his "dead wife, in Heaven above." When he was carried into the guard-room before the trial, the officer saw him throw something up in a dark corner. Taking a match and searching a short while, he found the pocket book which old Aunt Jane says is hers.

JUSTICE CASSIDY is frequently called on to arrange all sorts of difficulties arising from all sorts of causes. This morning he sat in magisterial dignity on a case of domestic infelicity, in which one Maria charged one Louisa with threatening to do her all sorts of personal violence, and performing awful operations in the dissecting line on her body, and of disintegrating her soul and allowing it to wing its aerial flight to far distant and warmer climes. Maria has been a loved and loving wife; the current of her wedded life flowed calmly through green meadows and by the bright hillside, but alas! the voluptuous Louisa threw an enchantment around the but too susceptible Dennis, who had years ago sworn fealty to the constant but now heart-broken Maria; and because she insisted that he should forsake the syren Louisa and return home with her, Louisa made the awful threats of vengeance that induced Maria to seek Squire Cassidy, and through him grant her the protection of the law. The Squire patiently heard all the evidence bearing on the case, made a few broken remarks on the improper and unbecoming conduct of Louisa, and smiling ben-ignantly, informed her that she would be allowed to go and sin no more—but before doing so, to ante up the costs, which was done.

STATE ITEMS.

Winston wants to have a tobacco fair and barbecue.

Raleigh has been enjoying cool weather the last few days.

The New Berne Silver Cornet Band are giving outdoor concerts.

A Goldsboro idler finds employment in writing 4,000 words on a postal card.

The Raleigh News is to have a new outfit and be slightly enlarged next week.

Kinston brags on a little dog 16 1/2 years old, and thinks it the oldest dog on record.

The New Berne Times becomes lacrimose because there is no Board of Trade or Merchants Exchange there.

The degree of D. D. has been confer-ed on Rev. L. S. Burkhead, of Charlotte, by the Emory College, Georgia.

A young lady of Raleigh is engaged in writing a romance which is nearly completed, and which will be published this fall.

John Allen Ketchey, the notorious scoundrel who was found guilty of rape and sentenced to be hanged last week at Rowan Court, has appealed to the Supreme Court.

The official returns of Wake county of the recent election on the constitutional amendments have not yet been received at the office of the Secretary of State at Raleigh.

The Kinston Gazette thinks it terrible to see cattle and hogs roaming through the Cemetery of that place because the fences are down and nobody sufficiently interested to repair them.

The Kinston Gazette says, some of our farmers think the cotton in this county to be cut off fully one-third by the recent continued rains. Between the rows the ground is literally covered with the fallen forms.

A company of fifteen colored vocalists from the Shaw Collegiate Institute of Raleigh, are giving concerts in some of the Northern States with great success and with much credit to themselves.

Hurdle racing is to be introduced at the next Weldon Fair, and it is thought that the same trained horses will be carried to the State Fair. Hurdle races are greatly in vogue at the North this season.

The Raleigh News says: In addition to the large number of things that are being placed, by parties in this State, at the disposal of the Committee who have charge of the getting up of the grand gift concert that is to be held at the approaching State Fair, the Committee is daily in receipt of letters from other States tendering donations to the general gift fund that is to be made.

A gentleman from Ohio donates a number of genuine Cotswold sheep; Connecticut will send a number of Brahma chickens; New York a pair of Alday calves and 500 pots of flowers; breach-loading guns will come from Massachusetts; cooking stoves from Pennsylvania, grape vines and fancy soaps from New Jersey, and fruit trees from Delaware. The Committee has been in correspondence with hundreds of gentlemen, and expect to make the number of gifts very large. All of the articles thus donated to the Society will be placed upon exhibition.

Olive Harper writes from London that Swinburne "every now and then escapes from parental authority, and runs up to London and has what he calls a 'time.'" The fact that Swinburne has a strict father, makes us wonder what the young man would have published if his youthful spirit had been unfettered.

PROSPECTUS.

EVENING POST.

J. C. MANN,

EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at Five Dollars per Annum.

The Post is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the

LATEST NEWS,

up to the time of going to press,

TELEGRAPHIC,

BY MAIL,

COMMERCIAL

AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

RELIABLE INTELLIGENCE,

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city. Politically the Post is

UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicissitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES OF the Post, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

AGRICULTURAL,

MECHANICAL, or

COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastically ally in THE POST.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

AS A FAMILY PAPER.
The Times will have no superior; it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL.
The Times will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The Times stood alone in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincere and honest proposal for Reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the Times. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity.

It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES
Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the agricultural and literary matter of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Daily.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly Times: One copy, one year, $3; two copies, one year, $5; ten copies, one year, $25—and one extra copy free.

Subscriptions to either of our editions received for a less length of time than one year at yearly rate.

"SPECIMEN AND PRICE LIST FURNISHED GRATIS."

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint:
C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly, Cresswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873. A. H. STRASBAUGH.

THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.
Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellence of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you), to make what use you think proper of this letter.

Very respectfully and truly, S. MCGILL, M. D.

To the PUBLIC.—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and as fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers; its quickly drying properties, which save much time in the execution of work where paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate.

WM. E. BINK, Front Street Theatre, CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1872.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material, and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.
Mr. C. P. Knight:—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor.

Yours, Respectfully, JOHN WETHERED.

BALTIMORE, December 27th, 1871.
C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint—Dear Sir:—The paint we purchased from you we will cheerfully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities is everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which, we think, resist the action of all kinds of weather. This is our experience, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work.

Very Respectfully, EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St. House, Sign and Fresco Painters. PHILADELPHIA, HARTFORD CO., Md.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Patent Enamel Paint" has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other.

Very Respectfully, R. DICKEY, M. D. C. P. KNIGHT, Sole Agent, No. 93 W. Lombard Street, Baltimore.

"Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World."

Harper's Magazine.
NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs.—Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must confess that it is one of the most successful enterprises of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with it, has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
